about NAAC

our mission

The Northwest Area Arts Council is a 100% all-volunteer not-for-profit agency, dedicated to connecting artists of all ages with the community at large and fostering creativity in all areas of life. NAAC accomplishes this by educating, informing, and inspiring the community through programs and events that encourage appreciation, participation and support of the arts.

our shows

NAAC holds a number of fine art shows each year at locations throughout the McHenry County area.

Our nationally recognized art exhibition, Women's Works, celebrating women's creativity, is held each spring at the Old Court House Arts Center in Woodstock, IL. The 25th Anniversary event (in 2012) will bring together over 150 works from across the country with over $1500 in prize money. Members receive a $10 entry fee discount!

Little Women's Works is a show for girls under the age of 18. Held at the same time as Women's Works each year, Little Women's Works has become a local favorite among many art educators and young artists and is not to be missed.

Each year, NAAC holds its annual Members' Show, which displays works by NAAC members and their immediate family. Additional shows are held each year, including Real People and various themed shows at locations throughout the area.

NAAC cooperates with many other arts organizations throughout our area. We're always looking for ways to help artists and patrons of the arts to expand their reach and impact on our community.

membership

Whether you are a working artist, an organization or association of artists, an arts educator or art school, a patron of the arts or simply someone who enjoys artistic expression, NAAC is here to support you and your goals. As a NAAC member, you will reap the rewards of our network of patrons, artists and educators.
